Boy-meets-girl or nu-rave pop-shock? The choice is yours

Preppy tomboy

Ralph Lauren went back to his American roots for S/S 10, citing farmers and pioneer women of the prairies as just some of his inspirations. This came down the catwalk in the form of preppy blazers (he does them so well!), studiously distressed denim and retro-chic heels worthy of a hearty swing dance. Our verdict? He does Yankee Doodle just dandy.
