MUST-HAVE CLASSIC CARRY-ALLS

Hollywood's GOING DOTTY

Well spotted! Demi Moore and Victoria Beckham tune their inner pretty woman and don some dots. A striking take on this season's print trend, spotted garments are a fresh and flirty alternative to the nautical stripe we have been seeing so much of lately. To wear it best, keep it classic. Large spots can look overpowering, so try to choose garments with small to medium circles in contrasting colours, such as navy blue or black with white.
